ABOUT SOHO THEATRE

Soho Theatre is London's most vibrant venue for new theatre, comedy and cabaret. A charity and an entrepreneurial social enterprise, Soho Theatre occupies a unique and vital place in the British cultural landscape.

Our work crosses theatre, comedy and cabaret and is at its most distinctive in the convergence point of these forms – while offering something for everyone from children's work to new plays. We provide a clear route for the development of a diverse range of artists at all stages of their careers.

Our audience is younger, more culturally and economically diverse than typical theatregoers. Non-traditional groups are attracted to the diversity of voices presented in our festival-like programme, participating through a range of schemes.

Our ambitions for 2018-22 represent the most exciting period of our development yet where we have a clear vision to take us from being a key player in London theatre to an organisation with a national and international reach and significance.

Our mission is to produce new work, discover and nurture new writers and artists, and target and develop new audiences.
