

British Sign Language Interpretation is embedded in the show.

When you enter the theatre you will find that there is pre-show information onstage. We recommend you book tickets at least a few rows from the front and central or to the right for the best view.

Captions are placed above the set. We recommend you book tickets at least a few rows up for the best view.

Audio Description is built into the show. You can sit anywhere. Pre-show information is available on the BOP website.

Sensory Touch Tour. For audience members using audio description, you have the option of arriving early to visit the set for a pre-show descriptive tour ahead of the main audience's arrival. If you would like to arrange this please contact Michelle, BOP producer via michelle@boptheatre.co.uk
This must take place 45 minutes prior to the show starting.
