About Soho Theatre

Soho Theatre is London's leading producer of new theatre, comedy and cabaret. We are a dynamic and boundary-breaking arts charity and social enterprise, and a great place to work. We are driven by a passion for the work we produce, the artists we champion and the audiences we inspire. Our programme celebrates bold new theatre writing, innovative performance and world-class comedy.

Today we operate across two venues: Soho Theatre in the heart of London's West End, and Soho Theatre Walthamstow in what Time Out has described as 'London's coolest neighbourhood'. Our Soho building, a former synagogue, was redeveloped and opened in 2000 as the first arts project to successfully use National Lottery funding to purchase a building on the open market. As we celebrate 25 years in the building, it remains much loved by artists and audiences alike as one of the capital's most vital and innovative spaces for new writing, comedy and performance. The venue hosts a year-round festival programme alongside a buzzing late-night theatre bar. Phoebe Waller-Bridge has described Soho Theatre as 'the mothership of new artists. People come from all over the world to perform there.'

In 2025 we opened Soho Theatre Walthamstow following more than a decade of work with Waltham Forest Council and a dedicated grassroots campaign to restore the historic venue. The £50 million redevelopment transformed a beautiful 1930s Art Deco Grade II* listed building into a state-of-the-art cultural destination. Winner of The Stage Awards Theatre Building of the Year 2026, the venue now includes a spectacular 970-capacity auditorium and world-class performance facilities. Alongside its renowned comedy programme, the theatre programme is rapidly evolving, with longer-run productions and Olivier-eligible theatre forming a growing part of the programme.

Our roots lie in the radical Soho Poly Theatre of the early 1970s, and that spirit continues to shape who we are today: bold, contemporary, counter-cultural with strong connection to queer and South Asian communities. We champion writers, artists and theatre-makers whose work challenges and entertains in equal measure, platforming voices from outside the mainstream and sometimes helping reshape the mainstream itself.

Our work extends far beyond our London stages through longstanding global partnerships in India, Australia, the United States and elsewhere, as well as participating in the Edinburgh Festival Fringe where we present around 20 shows each year. Alongside live performance, we create filmed and digital work that has been seen on Amazon Prime UK, our own British Airways inflight channel, and other international platforms.

Soho Theatre is led by a collaborative and diverse senior team and board. We are ambitious and entrepreneurial, a fast-paced and values-driven organisation with a strong team ethic and a clear commitment to supporting the development and progression of our staff.

OUR STRATEGIC GOALS

THEATRE: continue to increase the resource, profile and quality of Soho's theatre and new writing programme; to ensure that this work sits well within Soho's lively cross-genre festival programme with diverse audiences but also carves out the space to breathe and flourish within it.

COMEDY: work to ensure that we maintain an industry leading place through thoughtful curation, innovation and always being able to spot the next new talent; ensuring that artists continue to see Soho as a home for comedy and one of the places they want to perform; maintain programming integrity as we grow our audiences through Walthamstow, touring and digital.

CREATIVE ENGAGEMENT: grow our pathways for creative participation from early years to adulthood, supporting the next generation of artistic talent; support the growth of creative, connected communities around a new local theatre in Walthamstow.

WALTHAMSTOW: successfully open and establish as a 'local theatre with a national profile', working with our key stakeholders of Council and community. Effectively manage the resultant change, organisational growth, and risk.

AUDIENCES AND DIGITAL: build our distinctive London brand towards wider and inclusive audiences, with a particular focus on LGBTQ+, South Asian and Waltham Forest; international focus on India as well as Australia and the USA. Continue to build digital audiences and sustainable business models, also moving into specific digital content creation (as distinct from digital capture of live).

- Lead the planning and delivery of marketing activity across Soho Theatre's programme, ensuring campaigns are aligned with organisational priorities
- Manage the annual marketing output across both venues, balancing priorities across multiple shows and projects
- Work with senior colleagues to agree and manage box office targets and campaign budgets
- Collaborate with ticketing, sales, digital and press teams to support audience development and income generation
- Use audience insight and ticketing data to inform strategy and optimise performance
- Monitor and evaluate campaign performance, applying learning to future campaigns

Campaign Management

- Devise and deliver creative, integrated marketing campaigns in alignment with the wider communications team (Digital, Press, Ticketing and Graphic Design)
- Lead campaign planning and delivery for priority shows, with a particular focus on theatre productions

- Oversee day-to-day campaign delivery across paid, CRM, partner and in-venue channels
- Ensure alignment between marketing, digital content, press activity and audience communications
- Oversee the production of marketing materials including copywriting, design and print outputs
- Manage relationships with external agencies and freelancers including designers, photographers and media partners
- Support visiting companies, artists and promoters to deliver campaigns in line with Soho Theatre's brand
- Identify and grow target audiences, including new and underrepresented groups
- Lead audience segmentation and targeted email campaigns using CRM systems
- Work with digital and ticketing teams to analyse campaign performance and optimise future activity

Team Leadership

- Line manage Communications Officers (Marketing), supporting performance, development and day-to-day delivery
- Delegate workloads and manage priorities across campaigns and team members
- Foster a collaborative and high-performing team culture
- Support training and development for the marketing team and freelancers

General Responsibilities

- Work collaboratively across Soho Theatre to maximise audiences, engagement and income
- Support the delivery of Soho Theatre's business plan and organisational objectives
- Ensure consistency of brand and messaging across all marketing activity
- Represent Soho Theatre with external partners, artists and stakeholders where required
- Take an active role in first nights, press nights and key events
- Champion equality, diversity, inclusion and access across all marketing activity
- Ensure effective reporting, administration and communication across the team

How This Role Contributes

- Drives audience growth and ticket income across Soho Theatre's programme
- Delivers high-impact, integrated marketing campaigns across multiple artforms
