

Access

We want everyone to come see our shows and are putting in the work to try and break down the barriers.

We know there is always more work to be done so send us some feedback by emailing access@sohotheatre.com or if you prefer to have a chat call us on 020 7478 0100.

Booking Access Tickets

Access tickets can now be booked online meaning access prices and seating are available to you at the click of a button. Just be sure to register for an access account below.

Once registered, make sure to log into your account and look for starred seating for the best seats.

Other Ways To Book

Call our box office on 020 7478 0100 to chat through your booking. Our lines are open 10am-6pm Monday to Saturday.

Facilities

For Deaf and Hard of Hearing

Captioned Performances

A captioned performance, has a screen displaying the written script alongside the action on stage. The best seats for this will be indicated on the seating plan. For access to these seats, register for an online access account.

British Sign Language (BSL) Interpreted performances

Our BSL interpreted performances feature an on-stage interpreter who converts spoken dialogue into British Sign Language. BSL has a unique structure and syntax and the interpreter will spend several weeks learning a play before performing their translation.

Induction Loops

We have Sennheiser induction loops, which can be linked to a hearing aid to amplify the on stage sound. We can also provide headsets to go with these if needed. These can be used in row C to H in the Main House. These can be booked in advance by calling our team on 020 7478 0100.

For Blind and Visually Impaired People

Audio Described Performances

We don't want you to miss out on anything that happens on stage. Our audio described performances give you a live commentary about the action happening on stage through a pair of small headphones.

Like a narrator telling a story, a trained describer will tell you about the things you might not be able to see, describing body language, expressions and movements, so that you can keep up with the action.

There is a live introduction which will tell you about the characters, their costumes and the appearance of the set 15 minutes before the start of the show.

Touch Tours

To help you immerse yourself in the show we offer touch tours before each audio-described performance enabling you to explore the stage and get a feel of the set and costumes before the play starts.

If you'd like to experience a touch tour before you come along to the audio described performance please let us know when you book your ticket so we can get everything ready in advance for you. Touch tours normally take place 1 hour before the start of the show.

Relaxed Performances

At relaxed performances there is a relaxed attitude towards noise, welcoming natural responses to the show. There is the freedom to enter and exit the space when needed and we have staff on hand to accommodate any assistance, getting to seats or taking breaks.

Wheelchair Bookings

Each of our three venues are accessible via our lift and we reserve wheelchair spaces in each venue, where you can choose to transfer in to a seat, or you can choose to stay in your wheelchair and we will remove seats to accommodate this.

You can book into these accessible seats online, when you register with us for an access account. Make sure you log in to your account first and look for the wheelchair icon over the seat.

There are wheelchair-user accessible toilets on the ground and third floor of the building.

*Please note: We do not have wheelchair-user accessible toilets in our Main House Downstairs venue. The nearest wheelchair-user accessible toilets are on the ground floor, accessible via the lift.

For those who require an assistance animal

We welcome assistance animals at Soho Theatre. When planning your visit with us, we ask you to call or email us with what show you'd like to see, the date and any further requirements, so we can make sure you are seated in the best place for you to enjoy the show and your animal to have the best experience.
